

Tis the Season

As we reflect on how quickly the year has passed and how significant this time is, we cannot help but wonder what is next. There are so many unpleasant things happening around us but we try to put these things out of our minds and look forward to spending the most wonderful time of the year with friends and family.

As we discuss recent happenings we decided to remind ourselves why it is we celebrate Christmas and that was the inspiration behind our creation this year. We are putting Christ back into Christmas; after all He is the reason for the season.

Have a wonderful Christmas!
